

Discover Language

Guided Tours

Terms and Conditions

Issue of Tour Documents - Tour documents are issued after final payment and approximately 3 weeks before departure

Minimum Participant Requirement - A minimum number of participants are required for escorted tours. Tour dates are guaranteed so far the tour meets the minimum number of participants but can change due to cancellations that result in the tour falling below the minimum required.

Government Fees – Government fees include any and all fees or taxes imposed by the U.S. government or any foreign government authority including customs fees, security taxes, head taxes, immigration and naturalization fees, inspection fees, departure taxes, and air taxes. Taxes and fees are subject to change without notice.

Cancellation Fees – Due to the high costs resulting in cancellations, non-refundable expenses of our suppliers are charged in addition to the following per person fees:

Days before departure

- | | |
|---------------------|----------------------------------|
| • 60 or more days | Forfeit of deposit |
| • 30 – 59 days | 50% of total package per person |
| • Less than 29 days | 100% of total package per person |
| • No shows | 100% of total package per person |

Travel and Health Documents – Passport and visa requirements, including vaccination and other health requirements, for travel between your departure city and your destination from time to time. It is the sole responsibility of the passenger to contact the appropriate embassy or consulate regarding the required visas, and with medical personnel to determine what health documents and precautions are necessary, and have available the appropriate and valid travel and health documents. Compliance with travel documents and customs regulations is the tour participant's primary responsibility. For non-U.S. citizens, a multi-entry visa may be required for some tours.

Luggage – Discover Language is not responsible for any damaged or lost luggage or personal belongings while in custody of any coach, airline, or hotel. Travel insurance is highly recommended.

Tour Components – Tour prices and dates are subject to change without prior notification.